

Institute of Federalism

University of Fribourg

Rte. d'Englisberg 7

1763 Granges-Paccot

www.federalism.ch

The Institute of Federalism is advertising the following post:

1 student assistant

Starting in September 2010 or upon agreement

The post offers the possibility to contribute to different projects of the International Research and Consulting Centre (IRCC), in particular to the human rights dialogue with China. The job holder will be involved in research projects, project management and administration.

Requirements:

- Successful completion of two years studies in Law, Political Science, Economics or International Relations
- Excellent English knowledge
- Interest in Human Rights, Intercultural Dialogue and State organisation

Application documents have to be handed in until July 31, 2010 to the following address:

Prof. Eva Maria Belser
International Research and Consulting Centre
Institute of Federalism
Rte d'Englisberg 7
1763 Granges-Paccot